Name _____

- A sentence is a group of words that expresses a complete thought. It begins with a capital letter and ends with a punctuation mark.
- A sentence fragment is a group of words that does not express a complete thought: Went to the store.
- A statement is a sentence that tells something. It ends with a period.

  The playground is under construction.
- A question is a sentence that asks something. It ends with a question mark: Have you visited the new zoo?
- You can use interrogatives such as how, what, when, where, why, and who to ask questions.

Read each group of words. If it is a sentence, add the proper punctuation mark. If it is not a complete sentence, write fragment.

1. My mother walked into the kitchen .
2. Looked out the window fragment
3. One of my sisters fragment
4. What were they looking at ?
5. A deer stood in the yard .
6. Underneath the apple tree fragment
7. We watched quietly .
8. The deer looked up .
9. Did it see us ?

ELL Have students use sentence frames to complete the writing activity. One day I visited the zoo. I saw a parrot. Why does this animal have so many colors?

In your writer's notebook, write about a time you saw an unusual animal. Check your work to make sure each sentence expresses a complete thought and ends with a period or question mark.

Name _____

- A command is a sentence that tells or asks someone to do something. It ends with a period or an exclamation point: Be careful.
- An exclamation expresses strong feeling. It ends with an exclamation point: Carrots are my favorite vegetable, too!

Add the proper punctuation mark to the end of each sentence. Then write whether the sentence is a statement, question, command, or exclamation.

1. Where are the maps ? question
2. I had them in my backpack . statement
3. Help me look for them . (or !) command
4. I'm so angry about losing them ! exclamation

Reading/Writing Connection

Read this paragraph from "A Life in the Woods." Underline the exclamation. Then explain why you think the author used an exclamation in the paragraph.

Thoreau's move to the woods indicated that he liked to be alone. But Thoreau did not feel that way. "I have a great deal of company in my house," he wrote. Red squirrels awoke him by running up and down the sheer sides of his cabin. A snowshoe hare lived in the debris under his cabin, thumping against the floorboards. A sparrow once perched on his shoulder. Thoreau recorded these experiences in his journal. How easily writing came to him with the beauty of nature!

Possible response: The exclamation helps show Thoreau's excitement about living in nature with animals.

Name _____

- A sentence is a group of words that expresses a complete thought. It begins with a capital letter and ends with a punctuation mark.
- A statement ends with a period. A question ends with a question mark. A command can end with a period or an exclamation point. An exclamation ends with an exclamation point.
- An interjection is a word or a phrase used to express strong emotion. It is followed by an exclamation point. Wow! You won the race!
- Use a comma in direct address with the name of the person. Ali, thanks for the book. That's great, Susan!

Rewrite each sentence by putting capital letters and punctuation marks where they belong.

1. did you hear about the elephants outside

   Did you hear about the elephants outside?

2. they are coming to town for the fair

   They are coming to town for the fair.

3. go over to the window to see them

   Go over to the window to see them.

4. this year's fair will be the best ever

   This year's fair will be the best ever!

5. where are you going Amir

   Where are you going, Amir?

6. hey don't touch that

   Hey! Don't touch that!

Think of an exciting time in your life. Write a paragraph about this experience in your writer's notebook. Include one exclamation and one question in your paragraph. Edit and proofread your work.

For the first activity, ask a volunteer to paraphrase the directions. Then write and correct the first sentence on the board as a sample.

Proofread the paragraph. On the lines below, correct any fragments or mistakes in sentence capitalization and punctuation. Answers may vary slightly.

last night my sister wanted to go to the movies? I wanted to go with her. what was stopping us. I had to finish my math homework first. The hardest problems ever. I asked my sister to wait for me? what do you think she did. She helped me figure out the answers. made it to the show just in time

HANDWRITING CONNECTION

Be sure to write legibly. Use proper cursive and remember to leave spaces between words.

Last night my sister wanted to go to the movies. I wanted to go with her. What was stopping us? I had to finish my math homework first. Those were the hardest problems ever! I asked my sister to wait for me. What do you think she did? She helped me figure out the answers. We made it to the show just in time!
